HOPE OF AN EARLY RATE DECISION HELPS STREET

Bullish Tendency Noted Today in Stock Market as Result of Hastening of Commission Hearing.

[By Leased Wire to Evening Herald.]

New York, April 2.—Confident operations on the long side of the market were resumed today after an early period of hesitation. The ready response of the market to increased buying confirmed assertions of bullish traders that no considerable demand could be satisfied, except at higher prices, owing to the meager buying supply of stocks. Hope of an early adjustment of the railroad situation was the predominating influence.

Union Pacific was strengthened by the ruling of the courts that the preferred stock should not participate in the extra dividend disbursements. The general rise ran up to a point in various instances, with larger gains among the specialists. A few stocks were heavy. Baltimore & Ohio lost 2 points. Buying slackened toward noon and the list eased off from its best prices. Bonds were steady.

The market closed firm. New efforts on the bull side brought up the level of prices again, the inquiry from the shorts reviving as the session drew to a close, and Canadian Pacific was the most conspicuous feature of the railroad list. It rose to 269. Smelting fell a point, other copper shares made some headway upward.

The closing prices on the more important stocks were:

Amalgamated 77 $\frac{1}{2}$
Sugar 160 $\frac{1}{2}$
Atchison 97 $\frac{1}{2}$
Reading 165 $\frac{1}{2}$
Southern Pacific 95 $\frac{1}{2}$
Union Pacific 180 $\frac{1}{2}$
Steel 65 $\frac{1}{2}$
do. pfd. 116 $\frac{1}{2}$

Speculation languished after 12 o'clock. Bull operators abandoned efforts to force higher prices in the face of the inexplicable pressure against Baltimore and Ohio.

Completion of covering removed the prop from the market and afternoon dealings were at lower prices. Missouri Pacific fell 1 $\frac{1}{2}$ from the earlier high mark.

Chicago Grain

Chicago, April 2.—Export sales at Omaha rallied the wheat market today after an easy start. Prices opened 4 $\frac{1}{2}$ to 5 $\frac{1}{2}$ cents lower, but then advanced gradually to above last night's level.

Bullish Argentine news regarding prospective shipments to North America during April and May gave encouragement. The market opened a shade lower to 4 $\frac{1}{2}$ to 5 $\frac{1}{2}$ higher and soon rose all around.

Oats, although still, were firm. First sales of provisions ranged from 2 $\frac{1}{2}$ to 7 $\frac{1}{2}$ cents higher and there was a subsequent further gain.

Chicago, April 2.—Wheat—May, 91 $\frac{1}{2}$; July, 87 $\frac{1}{2}$.

The close was firm, 4 $\frac{1}{2}$ to 5 $\frac{1}{2}$ cents higher.

Corn—May, 67 $\frac{1}{2}$; July, 68 $\frac{1}{2}$.

The close was steady at 4 $\frac{1}{2}$ to 5 $\frac{1}{2}$ cents advance.

Oats—May, 27 $\frac{1}{2}$; July, 39 $\frac{1}{2}$.

Pork—May, 80 $\frac{1}{2}$; July, 82 $\frac{1}{2}$.

Lard—May, 11 $\frac{1}{2}$; July, 10 $\frac{1}{2}$.

Rib—May, 11 $\frac{1}{2}$; July, 11 $\frac{1}{2}$.

The close was firm, 4 $\frac{1}{2}$ to 5 $\frac{1}{2}$ cents higher.

Wool and Cotton Reporter on Wool

The American Wool and Cotton Reporter says of the market:

Sales for the week in Boston have been 1,540,000 pounds.

Business during the week under review has been somewhat quiet, owing largely to lack of stock, as also to the fact that the majority of manufacturers have supplied their wants temporarily and are now busily engaged in the manufacture and delivery of sample piece requirements. There is practically no lack of interest manifested, though sales are in much smaller quantity than has been reported for many months. This, however, is not an unusual condition, but is to be expected at this season of the year.

Contracting is still going on, though activity in this respect is not nearly as great as has been noted during the earlier weeks of the season. Dealers who made their contracts early secured their wool at prime, several cents a pound less than is being paid at the present time, and the larger operators have ceased contracting entirely.

Territory Wools.

A few sales of territory wools have been made, though none of any magnitude has been reported, the largest single transaction of the week being a transfer of 75,000 pounds of fine medium New Mexicans at an approximate clean cost of 50 cents. Montana is out of the market in most grades, a prominent manufacturer having sought in vain throughout the entire district for a lot of three- to five-sheep Montana.

A few Dakotas are still in stock, but the supply is limited, with prices firm, 1 cent higher staple selling at 19 to 20 cents, with half-blood staples a cent higher and quarter-bloods also selling at 20 to 21 cents. Several manufacturers who ordinarily use Montana have been purchasing more or less fine Capes and Montevideos, as these very nearly approximate the

Special Dispatch to Evening Herald:

Santa Fe, N. M., April 2.—There is some disposition here toward uneasiness regarding further mob trouble as the result of the receipt by the Santa Fe New Mexican yesterday afternoon of a black hand letter threatening further acts of violence. The letter, written in Spanish, is as follows:

Santa Fe, N. M., April 1, 1914,
Editor New Mexican.

My Dear Sir—The people are terrorized over the death of the murderer who killed his wife, the law would not have punished him; the authorities here are a joke; there is no law; the murderer who killed his four children will die the same. Lujan will die the same—these are abuses of the law, of the ones that manage the law. We will punish all those coward murderers, seeing there is no justice. We will see that there will be justice and we will kill all and hang all the authorities on the posts in the plaza—one by one.

That gang of policemen which we consider useless and unworthy to serve as peace officers we will put on the garbage wagon. Down with them! We will kill one of one and the rest of the others if they do not comply in the future, we will blow up the court house, the federal building, the capitol, giving them only thirty days, and if they don't comply with the law in a minute we will blow them up and all of them will be exterminated. (Signed) domestic staple in type and working qualities. A notable feature of the trading is the continuance of the demand for clothing wools. This is not, however, to be taken at its apparent face value as indicating an unusual activity on the part of the carded woolen branch of the industry, though many of our woolen mills are operating to capacity. A considerable part of the so-called clothing wools at present are being purchased by worsted spinners who have the French system of machinery and are able to use a much shorter wool than may be worked advantageously by the Bradford system.
